

The North America Free Trade Agreement in the era of Trump

Saturday, March 11th, 2017
13:00 – 14:30

What is at stake for the United States and Texas in particular if NAFTA were to collapse? The three partners: Mexico, the United States and Canada announced their intention to review the Treaty, with the United States even suggesting to abandon it. So what can we expect if that were to happen? What areas should be updated?

This panel is brought to you by:

Organizers

Univisión

Mexico Center of LLILAS Benson

Speakers

- Moderator: León Krauze, News Anchor, Univision Communications, Inc.
- Reva Goujon, Vice President of Global Analysis, Stratfor
- Congressman Henry Cuellas, Rep. for the 28th District of Texas
- Congressman Will Hurd, Rep. for the 23rd District of Texas
- Patricia L. Hansen, UT Law School Professor

León Krauze

Company: Univision Communications, Inc.

Job Title: News Anchor

Bio: Krauze serves as anchor of Univision Los Angeles' Noticias Univision 34, the nation's highest rated 6P and 11P news show, regardless of language. As anchor or reporter, Krauze has won six Emmy's, two Golden Mics, an Edward R. Murrow award" and a Southern California Journalism Award.

He has interviewed leading political figures including President Barack Obama, Juan Manuel Santos, Nick Clegg, Felipe Calderón, Enrique Peña Nieto and Shimon Peres.

Krauze is a renowned and award-winning journalist, author and news anchor. He began his career as a sports journalist, focusing on soccer. That passion led him to become not only an expert and official chronicler of the Mexican national team but also a highly regarded historian; he has written four books and eighty documentaries on the history of "futbol" in Mexico.

Reva Goujon

Email: reva.goujon@stratfor.com

Company: Stratfor

Job Title: VP of Global Analysis

Bio: Reva Goujon is a leading global strategic analyst who keeps her finger on the pulse of emerging trends across the world. Ms. Goujon leads Stratfor's team of analysts and plays an integral role in applying a forward looking, strategic lens to Stratfor's coverage of global events. She is also a prominent speaker, regularly addressing executives and investors at events across the world in a variety of industries, including energy, finance, commercial real estate and agriculture.

Ms. Goujon joined Stratfor in 2004 and has been featured in numerous newspapers and broadcasts, including Bloomberg, National Public Radio, CNN, The Associated Press, National Public Radio, Time Magazine, Al Jazeera English, Fox News, Haaretz, The New York Times, The Hindustan Times, Agencia Estado, Zinhua, Veja and Business Week.

Congressman Henry Cuellar

Company: US House of Representatives from Texas

Job Title: Rep. for the 28th District of Texas

Bio: Currently serving his sixth term in the U.S. Congress on the House Appropriations Committee. Born as one of eight children to migrant farm workers in Laredo, Texas, Congressman Cuellar was raised with strong family values and an unwavering work ethic to attain an advanced education. As the most degreed member of Congress, he points to education as the platform for his two decades of public service in Texas.

During his 14 years as Laredo's State Representative, Congressman Cuellar served in influential leadership positions in the preeminent House Appropriations, Higher Education, and Calendar Committees. While in the Texas State Legislature, he coauthored the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP), which ensured health care for thousands of previously uninsured children, and he co-sponsored the largest tax cut in Texas history, which included a three-day tax holiday for consumers and small businesses.

He also served on several national legislative committees dealing with state budgets, the U.S.-Mexico border and international trade.

During his first three terms in Congress, he's stood out among his congressional colleagues as an advocate for better government, commerce and trade, small businesses and border security. Congressman Cuellar is widely recognized as a leader on homeland security, border security and national emergency preparedness and response.

Congressman Will Hurd

Company: US House of Representatives from Texas

Job Title: Rep. for the 23rd District of Texas

Bio: Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas, Will is a proud product of the Texas public school system. He attended John Marshall High School and Texas A&M University, where he majored in Computer Science and served as Student Body President.

After college, Will served as an undercover officer in the CIA in the Middle East and South Asia for nearly a decade, collecting intelligence that influenced the National Security agenda. Upon leaving the CIA, he became a Senior Advisor with a cybersecurity firm, covering a wide range of complex challenges faced by manufacturers, financial institutions, retailers, and critical infrastructure owners. He was also a partner with a strategic advisory firm helping businesses expand into international markets.

In 2015, Will was elected to the 114th Congress and currently serves on the Committee of Oversight and Government Reform and chairs the Information Technology Subcommittee. He also sits on the Committee on Homeland Security and is the Vice Chair of the Border and Maritime Security Subcommittee. In 2017, Will was appointed by Speaker Ryan to serve on the House Permanent Select Intelligence Committee, to replace Representative Mike Pompeo upon his confirmation as Director of the CIA.

Patricia I. Hansen

Email: phansen@law.utexas.edu

Company: University of Texas at Austin

Job Title: J. Waddy Bullion Professor

Bio: Patricia I. Hansen has taught at the University of Texas School of Law since 1994. She currently holds the J. Waddy Bullion Professorship in Law and is Director of the dual degree program in Law and Latin American Studies.

A prominent scholar in the area of international economic law, Professor Hansen has published articles on the interplay between international economic law and environmental and consumer protection and dispute settlement in regional trade agreements. She has also worked on projects aimed at strengthening the rule of law in Latin America, and is a member of the American Law

Institute and former Member of the Board of Directors of the U.S.-Mexico Bar Association. She teaches courses on international trade; international business transactions; trade & investment in Latin America; trade, environment & human rights; federal civil procedure; and legal and political reform in Latin America.

Prior to joining the UT faculty, Professor Hansen clerked for John Porfilio of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, and worked for five years as a litigator at the law firm of Shea & Gardner in Washington, D.C.